SUPPORT SERVICES

Sunway College Johor Bahru is one of the few private institutions in Johor with a department dedicated to ensuring that a student is seamlessly guided through the entire college experience; from enrolment and admissions at the Information Centre to their welfare and on-campus student lifestyle, right up to student advancement upon completion of their education with the college through placement support – both for university placement as well as graduate job placement.

Emphasis is placed on providing students with the best possible range of support services in addition to a quality education.

College Essentials

The transition from high school to college and onwards to the workplace thereafter is an experience which many find challenging. This specially designed programme aims to ease this process by providing students with value added knowledge and skills through a series of resource-rich talks, engagement activities and development workshops covering three main phases of the student college experience.

- Learning Support
- Self Development
- Personal Advancement

Placement Support

The Placement Unit supports student advancement upon their completion of studies with the college. These support services facilitate university placement for Pre-University and Diploma students who intend to pursue undergraduate studies as well as graduate job placement for Diploma and Degree students bound for the working world upon completion.

- University application assistance
- Career guidance and advice
- Internship assistance
- Graduate job placement
